ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ABOUT COPENHAGEN

Copenhagen is the capital of Denmark, and has around 1 million citizens. Copenhagen is well known for its many beautiful places, some of the best restaurants in the world, as a city where more than 50% of the citizens regularly use a bike to get around, and where the water in the harbour is so clean – that you can swim in it.

Copenhagen is a pocket-sized fairy tale and at the same time, a buzzing and innovative hub of ideas. Copenhagen is a city large enough for every kind of life philosophy, but small enough to bicycle from one end to the other in twenty minutes. It is all there, the urban pulse in the cobbled streets, the castles and bell towers, the artists, makers and the green grass, the mothers, babies and their strollers, the hipsters and their dreams, the prince and the queen.

There are several tourist attractions in Copenhagen. Among the most popular are Tivoli, the Amusement park in the centre of the city. With its cosy atmosphere, great variety of amusement rides, flower gardens, bandstands and restaurants, Tivoli is the perfect attraction for the whole family. Amalienborg, the winter residence for The Danish Royal Family. The little mermaid, a bronze statue depicting the character from the famous H.C Andersen fairy tale. And of course the Danish parliament, in front of which the finals of the World Archery Championship 2015 are held.

World Archery Championships Copenhagen - Denmark 26 July – 2 August, 2015

FINAL Version 1.0 (30 January 2015)

The Copenhageners excel in combining simple and sustainable solutions with a casually sophisticated lifestyle. A lifestyle based on tradition, history and culture, yet constantly moving forward, giving Copenhagen a unique blend between the harmonies of old world charm and the progressive beat of a truly cosmopolitan city.

The restaurant scene in Copenhagen is an attraction in itself. From reasonably priced bistros to Michelin-starred places. One thing you can be sure of is the focus on high quality, seasonal ingredients and an unpretentious take on dining out. Just a decade ago Nordic gastronomy was not exactly talk of the town. This has changed dramatically, and one of the main reasons is restaurant Noma. Four times winner of the title Best Restaurant in the World, in 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2014, Noma epitomises the New Nordic wave which has echoed around the world. The New Nordic Kitchen has its own manifesto, written in 2004 by the The New Nordic Cuisine Movement, comprised of leading Nordic chefs such as Claus Meyer and René Redzepi.

Copenhagen is a city by the sea with water running through the old canals, with lakes, beaches and harbour baths. Indeed water is an ever present element, and most Copenhageners could not imagine life without it.

Life in Copenhagen is lived by, on and in the water. During the summer months, you will find Copenhageners seeking out the sun at the city beaches and beach bars, swimming in the clean water inside the harbour baths and kayaking around the canals. Even in winter, cool winter bathers dip themselves in the harbour.

With the tourist attractions, interesting restaurant scene, great weather, and the possibilities of taking a swim in the harbor or at the beach, Copenhagen is the perfect holiday destination. With the world archery championship in late July and early August, Copenhagen is the obvious choice of destination for the summer holiday 2015.

The finals will take place in front of the Danish Parliament in the city centre. There is public transportation just outside Sundby Arena, which makes it possible for spectators to come from Copenhagen downtown to the preliminary arena in about 10 minutes.

Transportation:

- Transportation will be provided from Copenhagen International Airport (CPH) to the official hotels, on 23, 24 & 25 July 2015.
- Transportation will be provided from the official hotels to Copenhagen International Airport (CPH), on 3 August 2015.
